

Plane Crash Kills 22

Louisville, Ky. (AP) — At least 22 men lost their lives yesterday when a plane carrying soldier trainees from Camp Kilmer, New Jersey, crashed and burned at Standiford Field, Louisville.

All the others aboard the twin-engine plane were injured.

The plane, operated by Resort Airlines, Inc., carrying a crew of three and 39 trainees, had taken off from Philadelphia. Most of the trainees were of Puerto Rican ancestry and were being taken to Fort Knox, Ky.

Deputy Coroner Harry Ellstone said the dead included the plane's captain, Wharton A. Miller, 34, of San Antonio, Tex., and the co-pilot, John Dewitt Pickel, 32, of San Antonio.

Stewardess Dorothy Jean Bush, 32, of Miami, Fla., lost a leg in the disaster, a hospital reported.

The accident occurred about 4:19 p.m., as the plane tried to land at Standiford Field, on Louisville's outskirts.

The craft almost touched its wheels to the runway, then climbed to about 150 feet and nosedived to the field. The plane broke in half at the middle, and both engines burst into flames.

The passengers in the rear portion were spilled about the field. "There wasn't much we could do about the fire," said Fire Captain Marion Norris. "People were lying all over the place, and we handled those we could."

County Policeman John Raiser, one of the first persons on the scene, reported that "we just started dragging people out of the plane as best we could. Some of them were pretty badly mangled."

The stricken plane was one of five bringing soldiers from Camp Kilmer. The first landed safely. After the second plane crashed, the three others were directed to Bowman Field, also in Louisville.

Bodies, some decapitated, were scattered as far as 100 feet from the flaming, twisted wreckage.

Flames started in the left engine when the ship crashed on the grass. The flames spread rapidly to the right engine.

Carl South, a transportation agent for Trans World Airlines, saw the crash. He said the plane came into his view at slightly under 1,000 feet altitude.

All appeared normal as the craft descended until he noticed that the left elevator flap on the tail dropped down, he said. As this occurred, the plane straightened into level flight. Then it nosed up momentarily and plummeted to the earth, he added.

Some bodies and injured men were trapped in the crumpled part of the fuselage.

The impact tore off the shoes of many aboard the plane and scattered them throughout the blood and oil-smeared ruins.

Standiford Field fire equipment reached the scene and extinguished the fire.

Boy, 9, Opens Safe Two Out Of Three Times

White Plains, N. Y. (AP) — Police were astounded when a 9-year-old boy opened the safe in the detectives' room in two out of three tries.

A bicycle theft charge against the youngster, not identified, was lodged last Monday and he was released in custody of his mother. Sunday, a policeman saw the boy loitering on a street, took him to the youth house.

The station reportedly boasted of a number of unsolved burglaries in the neighborhood, said he opens safes by "listening to the tumblers fall in place."

Then he demonstrated on the official repository.

The boy was taken to the children's shelter at Hawthorne, N. Y.

Local Bolts ILA As Strike Nears

New York, (AP) — An 800-man Hudson River local bolted the orphaned International Longshoremen's Association last night, as the union cleared the docks for a mid-week waterfront strike.

Local 895 became the second New York local to bolt the ILA since it was kicked out of the AFL last week for racketeering. A Brooklyn local led the secession a few days ago.

The bolt of Local 895 left a breach in the proposed strike front of the old ILA and increased chances of a bloody, all-out waterfront war if the union goes through with plans for a walkout.

The 129-member ILA Negotiating Committee only a few hours earlier had said it will recommend a strike for midnight Wednesday from Maine to Virginia, unless it comes to contract terms before then with Atlantic Coast shippers.

J. J. Newberry To Receive Pennsylvania Award From Gov. Fine Here Oct. 28

Gov. John S. Fine will be here Oct. 28 to present a Pennsylvania Ambassador award to J. J. Newberry, founder of the Newberry Stores chain which had its first store in Stroudsburg.

Presentation of the award was delayed after Mr. Newberry's nomination because of his illness.

The October 28 date was selected by Gov. Fine and has been confirmed. In a letter to Gerald P. O'Neill, the governor said he would be unable to be present during Pennsylvania Week, the week of October 12, but could be here October 28.

That date proved satisfactory to Mr. Newberry who is planning a vacation in the Poconos during that period.

U.S. Must Be Willing To Negotiate With Russians, Ex-President Truman Says

New York, (AP) — Former President Truman said last night our foreign policy must include willingness "to seek in all sincerity solutions of our differences with the Soviet bloc through patient and peaceful negotiation."

Negotiation, Truman said, should be approached "in firm agreement with our allies and from a position of united strength."

The former President, here to receive the annual Four Freedoms Award, said in a speech at the award dinner that willingness to negotiate is one of the basic pillars of our foreign policy, to be supported "regardless of partisanship."

Saying that "a return to isolationism would be the road to disaster," Truman listed these other basic policies to be defended:

"A renewed and re-invigorated reciprocal trade program; a strong defense—a really strong defense; support of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization; support of European unity; support of the Rio pact; support of the Pacific alliance; technical assistance and economic aid for the underdeveloped countries; support of the United Nations."

Calling for "sympathy and understanding of our friends, even when they differ with us," Truman added:

"I do not say this out of any mere 'softness' toward foreigners. I say it in the interest of the United States . . .

"Let no American think it has been 'charity' that led us into this great series of mutual undertakings from lend-lease through the Marshall Plan to the mutual security programs of today. It was not charity alone, but self-preservation."

Major Contradicted

Washington (AP) — The Air Force denied yesterday an assertion by Donald E. Keyhoe, a retired Marine Corps major, that it has secret motion pictures proving that "flying saucers" are interplanetary craft.

Seek Guaranteed Wage

Pittsburgh, (AP) — The CIO United Steelworkers set sights yesterday on a guaranteed annual wage for its 1,200,000 members in contract negotiations opening next spring.

Four Million Americans Hurt By Drinking, Yale Authority On Alcoholism Declares

Washington (AP) — A Yale authority on alcoholism said yesterday 60 to 70 million Americans, mostly parents, drink alcoholic beverages and four million of them are potential or confirmed alcoholics.

Dr. Selden D. Bacon, director of the center of alcoholic studies at Yale University, also declared that the ratio of alcoholism by sexes is about six men to one woman. It is most common between the age of 35 and 55, he said.

By racial groups, Dr. Bacon said native white Americans, Irish, Scandinavians, English and Poles have a high rate, while the Mediterranean people such as the Italians and Greeks tend to have a low rate.

"The Jews, almost all of whom use alcoholic beverages, have an extraordinary low rate, a fact which has been recognized for over three centuries," he said.

Chiefs Of State Urged To Confer

United Nations, N. Y. (AP) — India's V. K. Krishna Menon yesterday called on the U. N. Assembly to request formally a personal meeting of the chiefs of state of the big powers in an attempt to solve the world's troubles.

Menon said the peace of the world is the responsibility of the great powers—"primarily of the two giants—the United States and the Soviet Union." He said they alone have the means to enforce peace.

He also urged the Assembly to issue a declaration calling on the United States and Russia to promise never to use atomic and hydrogen bombs and other weapons of mass destruction.

Referring to a meeting of the chiefs of state, he said, "this idea is what humanity cries for."

The wavy-haired Indian delegate spoke to the Assembly shortly after Prime Minister Churchill broke into his vacation to declare he still thinks a top level Big Four meeting is a good idea.

Some diplomats here said they looked on the Indian proposal coupled with Churchill's statement yesterday as twin moves to put pressure on the United States to agree to a top level conference on world problems.

Menon, apparently meant that Britain, the United States and the Soviet Union should send their chiefs of state to such a conference. He quoted statements from them on the desirability of peace and said at least a start must be made on solving the world's problems.

He also mentioned that President Auriol of France had called for a Big Four conference in an address to the Assembly in 1951.

The United States delegation said any reaction to Menon's proposal on a meeting of the big powers would have to come from Washington since it involved the President.

In Washington, however, the State Department said it failed to see how a top-level conference such as Churchill suggested could "accomplish results different from those being sought through conferences that are now in prospect." The department was commenting on the announcement issued for Churchill in London.

Ike Endorses Daily Devotion

Chicago, (AP) — President Eisenhower said yesterday there is great need for daily devotion to God.

The President, in a message to the sponsors of Christian Education Week, set forth:

"I am very happy to join you in support of the objectives of Christian Education Week. It is an observance through which we and our nation's children may heighten our awareness of the goodness and greatness of the Almighty in every deed and thought in our daily lives."

"Our need for this awareness and daily devotion is indeed great today. I hope that Christian Education Week will help each American child to realize this."

"I hope it will encourage all Americans to redouble their efforts to shape their lives and to fashion their purposes in keeping with this."

Four Million Americans Hurt By Drinking, Yale Authority On Alcoholism Declares

Dr. Bacon gave these highlights on his studies in a copy-righted interview in U. S. News & World Report, independent weekly news magazine published here.

In a wide-ranging commentary on problems connected with alcoholism, Dr. Bacon pointedly criticized the "classical temperance lectures" of persons he described as "very sincere, well-meaning drunks."

He also chided American schools and colleges for failing to educate youngsters about "some very real dangers attached to drinking."

"Telling them nothing, telling them nonsense, or talking down to them with nothing but negative commands—these are all ineffective and rather escapist types of education, especially since the students want education on the matter," he said.

Not A Flying Saucer

'Ball Of Fire' Clearly Visible In Skies Throughout Eastern Pennsylvania Counties

A "big ball of fire" with a tail which looked like "sparklers used during the Fourth of July" was seen by scores of people in an around the Stroudsburgs around 6:30 p.m. last night, but for a change their reaction were not of the flying saucer variety.

Descriptive reports varied little. The several reports received by The Daily Record all agreed on the time of the movement, the general shape of the ball of fire and the sparkler tail.

Mrs. Fred H. Eke, 19 Collins St., Stroudsburg, said she was looking out a back window when she first saw the object.

She said it looked to be "about the size of a football, only round and had a tail about a yard and a half long that looked like sparklers."

Gov. McCarty Of Florida Dies At 41

Tallahassee, Fla., (AP) — Gov. Dan McCarty of Florida died last night shortly before 10 p. m.

His physician said the governor was conscious almost until the end and said he spoke with his wife about three minutes before he died.

His physician said "There is nothing that can be said. There just wasn't enough (strength)."

All members of the immediate family were with the governor when he died.

McCarty, who was elected to a two-year term last November, was 41.

Death Ends Long Series Of Setbacks

South River, N. J. (AP) — Ten years of one heartache after another have ended for a paralyzed World War II bombardier from Scranton, Pa.

Michael Sloan, 32, died Saturday as a veteran and citizen groups were conducting a specially designed home for him, his wife, Rita, and their five children.

Sloan guided a bomber to a landing during the war after the pilot and co-pilot were shot on a bombing raid over Germany.

After months in service hospitals for treatment of burns and other injuries he moved his family here from Scranton. Then he became paralyzed.

South River residents and veterans groups began a drive to help him. They located a house and paid the rent. Last March the house burned to the ground and Sloan lost his possessions. After another house was found, his youngest son, Andrew, contracted meningitis. The boy recovered eventually.

A new campaign was started this summer to construct a home for the Sloans behind the local Veterans of Foreign Wars post. Then, last week, Michael's brother, William, who had come to help the family, was killed in an automobile accident in nearby Raritan Twp.

Mrs. Benny's Sister Jailed

Hollywood (AP) — Babe Blum, going up like the sister-in-law Jack Benny makes her out to be in his radio show, was jailed yesterday and accused of trying to break into the apartment of a young TV actor.

Mrs. Blum, sister of Mary Livingston, was booked on charges of drunkenness and disturbing the peace.

Two postal clerks with her also were arrested. Officers said they fished Post Office badges at TV actor Bob Hannon and his roommate, Ed Castley, 26, former friend of Mrs. Blum.

The badges failed to impress Hannon, who does most of his television acting as a detective on "Dragnet." He called police.

Wreckage Found

Perpignan, France, (AP) — French villagers from nearby Glette found the wreckage of a U. S. Air Force C-17 and the charred bodies of its four crewmen yesterday on the site of a heavily wooded 7,200-foot peak in the eastern Pyrenees. It crashed Saturday.

Mrs. Eke said she hurried to her front porch in an effort to trace the flight of the ball of fire, but could not see it.

However, a group of young boys kicking a football at the corner of Lee Ave. and Collins St. had stopped playing and were watching the ball of fire in awe, she said.

Mrs. Eke described the path of the ball of fire as "coming over Foxtown Hill and running in the direction Lee Ave. runs." That would be roughly south to north.

Other reports were received from various parts of the county and as far north as Bear Creek in Luzerne County.

Philadelphia (AP) — A fiery object was spotted streaking across the skies in this area last night.

Some observers described it as "a red ball of fire," while others said it appeared to be a brilliant yellow.

Most reports of the object came from the Eastern Pennsylvania counties of Lehigh, Northampton, Monroe and Carbon where it was seen traveling from south to north between 6:20 p.m. and 6:30 p.m. There it was described as a red ball of fire.

In Philadelphia, an airport control tower operator said it gave off a brilliant yellow illumination and was visible to him for about 25 seconds. Many residents telephoned reports of their sightings to city hall.

Expert opinion on whether the object was a comet or a meteor was not forthcoming immediately.

Protests Of Both Sides Delay Processing Of War Prisoners

Panmunjom, Tuesday, (AP) — The Korean Repatriation Commission told the U. N. Command and the Communists today the processing of reluctant war prisoners "may be delayed further if both sides insist on improvements in facilities."

An Indian spokesman said both sides had rejected the location and design of compounds already built for use by "explanation" teams who will see to persuade prisoners to return home.

The spokesman said the Reds object to the present site because Communist representatives "have to go through all the POW camps to reach it."

"They want to avoid them because of hostile prisoners," he added.

The U. N. Command has protested that the compounds are too small and inadequate.

The "explanations" to 22,600 anti-Communist prisoners and more than 300 Allied POWs were scheduled to start Oct. 1, but the Repatriation Commission said they would have to be postponed "unless the two sides are prepared to start the work with the existing facilities."

The five-nation commission is under fire from the Allies for circulating a message which the U. N. Command charged was "slanted toward unduly influencing" the anti-Communist prisoners. The Allies charged the message violated the commission's neutrality.

The commission had been expected to reply formally today, but the spokesman said an answer probably would not be forthcoming until tomorrow.

Beria's Reported Escape Begins To Look Like Hoax

Washington (AP) — Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) said yesterday the reported escape of Lavrenty Beria, deposed boss of the Kremlin's secret police, "begins to appear like a hoax."

McCarthy said he expects the Spanish government will release a statement on the matter shortly.

McCarthy emphasized "I am not convinced one way or the other, but it looks more and more as if it is not Beria."

He said a man who resembles Beria, and who claims to be the former Soviet Russian secret police boss "was allegedly in Spain," but the senator declined to elaborate.

Warsaw, Poland (AP) — Poland's Communist government has decided to divest Stefan Cardinal Wyszyński, head of the Roman Catholic Church in Poland, from his church offices, the Polish radio announced last night.

Laborites Reject Slap At America

Margate, England, (AP) — Britain's Labor party today rejected a letting resolution aimed at pinning the blame on the United States for the cold war and the armament race.

Aneurin Bevan, long an advocate of arms reduction in Britain, took no part in the debate. Some of his followers supported the measure from the floor, but most remained quiet.

Thus the debate did not represent, in any sense, an organized attack by Bevan's faction on the policy of the party leadership. For the time being, at least, it's hard to differentiate at this conference between a Bevanite and a moderate.

The repeated arms cut resolution declared "our dependence on the United States commits us to a vested interest in the cold war."

States To Share Control Over Farm Program

Niagara Falls, N. Y. (AP) — Agriculture Secretary Benson said yesterday his department was reorganizing to give states more control of the nation's farm program.

Details are not ready for announcement, Benson said, but "the plans we are working on are going to give the state a larger share in developing and serving agriculture."

The plan, he said, follows the recommendations of President Eisenhower.

"We want farmers to produce for a free market rather than for a federal bounty," he said.

The "readjustment" in agriculture was "severe," Benson said, because it had been delayed by previous administrations.

"Too many Americans, for too many years, have been calling on Washington to do for them what they could do and should be doing for themselves," he said.

Human Bones Found

Wilkes-Barre (AP) — A number of human bones were discovered in a wooded area near here yesterday by a young boy. They are believed to be those of an adult who had died several years ago.

B-52, F-100 Orders Placed After Tests

Washington (AP) — The Air Force announced yesterday stepped up production of giant Boeing B52 jet bombers and North American F100 supersonic jet fighters.

Exactly how many planes will be ordered under the new program has not been decided, Secretary of the Air Force Talbott said.

His announcement stressed that the additional bombers will be turned out by Boeing's aircraft plant at Wichita, Kan. "To eliminate the danger of a single source for this important aircraft," Boeing's Seattle plant now produces all B52s.

Talbott said Boeing will be given sufficient time on deliveries to tool up its Wichita plant at an estimated cost of 250 million dollars.

He said the expanded fighter and bomber production was ordered only after "extensive tests" of the planes, a precaution taken to avoid major modifications of new aircraft after they have come off the production line.

"It has been normal policy," Talbott said, "to maintain low rates of production on all new aircraft until extensive testing has proved that all apparent defects have been eliminated and that the aircraft is ready for quantity production."

Talbott said the F100 has exceeded the speed of sound in level flight during initial tests, has completed its first and second phase tests and "all indications are that it will meet its final tests successfully."

The huge B52 is powered by eight Pratt and Whitney J57 jet engines, has a wing span of 185 feet, is 156 feet long and has a tail weight of 48 feet.

In answer to a question, Talbott said the Air Force probably will announce later this week the award of contracts for C123 assault transport planes. This contract must go to one company rather than be divided among the five bidders, he added.

A reporter, obviously referring to this year's congressional fight over a slash in Air Force funds, asked Talbott if there was enough air defense money available for the current fiscal year, which ends next June 30.

"Air defense has got all the money that it can spend intelligently through fiscal 1954," he replied.

Brownell Silent On Appointment Of Gov. Warren

Washington, (AP) — Atty. Gen. Brownell kept it a tight secret last night whether his hurry-up trip to the West Coast heralds the appointment of California's Gov. Earl Warren to the U. S. Supreme Court.

Brownell conferred with President Eisenhower at the White House, reporting on his weekend talk with Warren, but declined to tell newsmen whether he recommended Warren for the high court post.

Gov. Earl Warren

Later, informants at the Justice Department said Brownell had not yet made any recommendation to Eisenhower.

High government officials said Brownell has had a series of conferences with Eisenhower on the question of filling the vacancy left by the death of Chief Justice Fred M. Vinson, who died of a heart attack Sept. 8. The situation has now become urgent because the high tribunal begins its 1953-54 session next Monday.

All-Church Assembly To Take Place

Tomorrow night at 7:30 an all-church Christian education assembly will be held in the First Presbyterian Church of Stroudsburg. The minister, Rev. Ernest T. Campbell, has listed this meeting as one of the most strategic and important in the entire church year.

With the help of two flunkeys and two leaders from the Bethlehem Presbyterian Church, this meeting will come to grips with new opportunities that are now available for strengthening the Church School.

Parents will learn how the home may be allied with the church in the task of Christian education. Teachers will come to discover improved methods and techniques for communicating truth.

Mr. Campbell is hopeful that every parent of a Church School boy or girl will make the effort to attend, and that each teacher of the Church School staff, along with other church officers and leaders, will be on hand.

The Family-Night supper will begin at the usual hour 6:15. It is important that reservations for this meal be made through Mrs. Ernest T. Campbell by today noon.

THE FINE CAR

at half the fine car price

Duplicating America's costliest cars, feature after feature, Ford is worth more when you buy it . . . worth more when you sell it!

A FEW MINUTES on the telephone calling the dealers who sell America's finest cars will reveal there are at least eleven models among four makes with price tags over $4,000! In fact, dealers in one make will take an order for a beauty costing $7,000.

Now the interesting thing is that in feature after feature the Ford car duplicates each one of these fine cars, and for less than half the fine car price!

To be specific:

If you will look under the hood of the most expensive cars—even the one for $7,000—what do you find?

A V-8 Engine!

Well, the Ford car has a V-8, too. In fact, it has had V-8 power since 1932, and since that time Ford has built more V-8's—by millions—than all other manufacturers combined. And there's no other builder in Ford's price range that's seen fit to offer one yet!

Another point—though Ford's Strato-Star V-8 turns out a tidy 110 horsepower, it's not the number alone that counts. It's the kind of power you get out of the engine—through the transmission—that tells the story. And, what you get out of the Ford V-8 with any of the three transmission options we offer—Fordomatic, Overdrive and Conventional—is written in letters of "go" wherever there is a road.

But the engine, as fine as it is, is only one of many things that make a fine car fine.

There are the controls, the comfort refinements—all the things that make a car more than a piece of machinery—rather a part of you!

Automatic shifting, for example. All the fine cars offer it in one form or another because it's one of the things that make a fine car fine. But if you've never driven a Ford with Fordomatic you've missed one of the finer things of life. This amazing transmission not only does away with clutching and shifting forever—it gives you exactly the amount of power you want, when you want it—automatically. And, without delay. Some so-called automatics still require a clutch pedal and take their own sweet time to get you going. Not Fordomatic. With either the V-8 or Six, Fordomatic says "yes" when you say "go."

Fine car power steering, too. The big, heavy costly cars offer it for the same reason they offer power brakes. It's a man-sized job for a 120 pound woman to handle a car weighing two tons or more without it—especially when parking. Our "Master-Guide" has two distinct benefits.

First, it gives a hydraulic power assist right down at the wheels and just enough to take out the work. You don't lose one particle of control—rather your control is more complete and far easier.

Second, being hydraulic, "Master-Guide" power steering absorbs those fatiguing steering wheel tremors caused by ruts and roads in bad repair. Incidentally, this is a great safety advantage, because the car is so much easier to control in the case of a tire blow-out or hitting a soft shoulder unexpectedly. And road wander due to a cross wind is something you can forget about. And you don't pay a fine car price for "Master-Guide."

But there is another fine car feature—the Ford ride. Books have been written on the subject of riding quality in an automobile, but the payoff comes on the pavement—or lack of it! Many people associate a comfortable ride with excess weight, but it's not weight alone that makes for comfort. If it were, those big live-ton trucks which you see every day would be the most comfortable vehicles on the road.

Without being technical we can tell you that what's been done with the suspension and springing system gives the Ford a softer ride, a smoother ride than many cars which tip the scales at better than an added half ton. What's more, Ford engineers have found out how to cut front end road shock up to 80%—something many of the others haven't! Even roads you'd avoid entirely in many cars become not just passable—but passable in comfort. And, when you round a curve, you do it on the level—one of the advantages of another fine car feature—Ford's wide front tread.

And speaking of ride, we'd also like to point out that all seats—front and rear—in a Ford are cushioned in foam rubber, and at no extra cost.

What about room? Here's an interesting point. If you've felt that only a costly car offered enough room, you just ought to sit down in a Ford even if you're out-size and six feet four! The so-called big car is bigger on the outside, to be sure, but unless you buy a limousine with those little jump seats, it's not one passenger bigger inside.

Every standard Ford model carries six—with the exception of the Business Coupe, and of course, the Country Sedan and Country Squire which carry eight—with ease. And, as for "baggage room"—Ford trunk compartments measure better than 26 cubic feet. That's a full suitcase larger than most cars on the road today!

Visibility is another fine car Ford feature. We say Ford cars offer "full-circle" visibility because they all have huge, curved one-piece windshields and a huge rear window to match . . . plus side windows that mean every passenger gets room with a view! You will enjoy the extra safety of full-circle visibility every mile you drive—the absence of "blind spots" made possible by the large glass areas and narrower corner posts.

How beautiful is a Ford? A great English poet, John Keats, once wrote "Beauty is Truth, Truth Beauty"—well, he could have been writing about our car for its beauty comes from honest, clean lines in every dimension. In fact, we think most people agree—even our competitors—that the appearance of a Ford Car leaves very little to be desired. It is "at home" wherever it goes and it goes everywhere.

So there you have it—the features and reasons that make a fine car fine as far as control, good looks and comfort are concerned.

But what about Ford quality? Does it too match the fine car? Is the sheet metal of the body panels as thick? Is the finish as good? How about the trim and things like that? Well, as far as we can determine, the sheet metal is identical in thickness in practically all instances. As to finish—we believe Ford's baked-on enamel has no equal in any car. Ford upholstery fabrics and trim are less costly, to be sure, but they're less delicate, too, and if anything, more durable.

How then is it possible to give you this fine car at half the fine car price?

Part of the answer lies in Ford manufacturing skills and knowledge as evidenced by the V-8 engine. Part of it comes from the ever increasing numbers of cars Ford produces and the economies they make possible. And, part of it comes from Ford's willingness to give greater values than might be expected in cars selling in Ford's price range. That's the Ford idea.

Summing up. All these things add up to a fact that a prudent man cannot overlook. Ford Cars are not only worth more when you buy—but also worth more when you sell, as proved by the prices Ford used cars bring in the used car markets throughout the country.

No wonder Ford is proving to be America's finest line-car buy!

Worth more when you sell it!

County Firemen Announce Plans For Fire Prevention Week

Stroudsburg Companies To Direct Parade

A parade of fire units from throughout the county will highlight the opening of Fire Prevention Week next Monday.

Ten companies have already indicated they plan to participate—including the Portland fire company from Northampton County—and more companies are still to be heard from.

Plans for the parade were outlined last night by Stroudsburg Fire Chief Millard Marsh at the Monday night drill.

So far, 25 pieces of equipment have been lined up to take part in the parade. Also participating will be at least three bands.

The parade will wind from East Stroudsburg to Stroudsburg, said Capt. Robert Phillips of Phoenix Hose Co., in charge of parade arrangements.

Line of march will be from East Stroudsburg High School, leaving at 8 p.m., down N. Courtland, S. Courtland, Washington St., across the State bridge, up Main St., Stroudsburg, to Ninth St.

There will be open house at the Stroudsburg firehouse Tuesday night. Firemen will be on hand to answer questions describe the methods of using the apparatus.

A concert by the Pioneer Band will be staged.

Wednesday also will be open house.

Thursday firemen will demonstrate firefighting tactics at Fifth St. Bridge, Stroudsburg.

Again Friday night there will be open house at the firehouse. Children especially are invited to see the equipment.

Chief Marsh estimated more than $100,000 worth of fire equipment will be on display.

Jury Awards $1,500 Verdict

For injuries suffered in a fall from a bicycle two years ago, Mrs. Helen Milano Nerdotti, St. Albans, N.Y., was awarded $1,500 damages yesterday in county court.

The jury deliberated about an hour before returning the verdict against Pocono Lodge Inc., defendant, represented by Alex L. Benninger and Charles Benninger.

No testimony was offered by the defendant's counsel.

Mrs. Nerdotti, under questioning by her counsel, George T. Robinson, testified she rented a bicycle while a guest at Pocono Mountain Inn and started to ride it down a slope from the Inn to the swimming pool.

The brakes did not work, she testified, and as a result Mrs. Nerdotti suffered a fall from the bicycle. She claimed she was injured and suffered permanent disfigurement because of a facial swelling.

A niece corroborated Mrs. Nerdotti's story, and a physician's deposition was also read.

Club Conducts Installation

Formal installation of new officers of the Exchange Club was made last night at Mountain Lake House, Marshalls Creek.

President is W. Grady Moore. Installation was made by Harold Cragger, Easton, district governor. Next meeting will be Oct. 12 at East Stroudsburg Presbyterian Church.

Gasoline Sells For 17.5 Cents

Wilkes-Barre (AP)—A five week gas war pushed the price of gasoline to a new low of 17.5 cents a gallon yesterday in the entire Wyoming Valley area.

When the price war began in mid-August, regular gasoline was selling for about 28 cents a gallon. The price war started in the Kingston area but now has taken in the entire valley. Premium gas now sells for them 19.9 to 24.9 a gallon compared to about 27.9 cents a gallon before the war started.

Community Chest Workers To Be Guests Of O'Neill At Kickoff Dinner Oct. 5

Some 100 workers in the 1953 Community Chest campaign have been invited by Gerald P. O'Neill, owner of the Penn-Stroud Hotel, to be his guests at dinner for the kick-off rally of Chest campaigners on October 5.

Formal invitations have been issued by Chest headquarters containing Mr. O'Neill's invitation with a complete outline of a program of unusual interest. Answers to the invitation should be returned today or tomorrow.

This gesture by Mr. O'Neill has been his practice since he acquired the Penn-Stroud Hotel. It is aimed at bringing together all Chest workers for a "kick-off rally at no cost to the Community Chest.

Rev. Ernest Campbell of First Presbyterian Church will give the "kick-off" address.

Tom Waring, composer-entertainer of Shawnee-on-Delaware and Fran Shinn, radio-TV program director, of Vacation Valley, Echo Lake, are perfecting the entertainment.

It is important now that those who have received invitation advise Community Chest headquarters whether they intend to be present on October 5.

Convicted Slayer Gets Life Term

Harrisburg (AP)—George D. Smith, 25, Cleveland, Tenn., yesterday was sentenced to life imprisonment for the fatal shooting of a 79-year-old gasoline station attendant.

A Dauphin County jury which found Smith guilty of first degree murder a week ago recommended the sentence.

Smith and William Loveday, 20, Knoxville, Tenn., and Leonard Mahaffey, 22, also of Cleveland, Tenn., were accused by the state of the early morning slaying of David W. Fawber when Fawber resisted a robbery attempt.

Mahaffey and Loveday pleaded guilty to a general charge of murder and are awaiting sentencing.

"HIGHER LIVING COSTS" A COAL ANNOUNCEMENT

With this fall we begin our fifty-first year of furnishing quality coal for winter consumption. FAIR DEALING HAS BEEN OUR MOTTO. We have endeavored to be fair to our trade and fair to ourselves. If our prices had been TOO HIGH competition would have put us out of business, while if our prices had been TOO LOW creditors would have closed our doors. For our customers' protection we have always carried stock on hand so during stoppages we could properly care for our trade. Ours, we believe, are the only scales in Monroe County tested every morning with United States Standard Test Weights, insuring accuracy of scales. We believe the coals we handle are the best mined and give satisfaction according to the equipment in which used.

JEDDO-HIGHLAND "Aristocrat of Anthracite" very hard, burns slow and clean, producing minimum of ash. A REAL PREMIUM coal it sells at a slightly higher price.

"Old Company's Lehigh" Premium—"It lasts longer!" Guaranteed by Good Housekeeping—"If the coal you are now using is soft and runs through the grate just try one ton of "Old Company's" and save money. And you will be surprised at the low ash content.

Lehigh Valley Hazleton Shaft. A premium, deep mined, hard, clean, bright coal, properly sized. This is the first year that we have handled this coal. All reports thus far are very good.

Glen Alden "Blue Coal." "America's Finest Anthracite." More people burn this coal than any other coal mined. We have said it for over fifty years with complete satisfaction, excepting in cases of mine suspension they could not supply our requirements.

Our shippers, quoted above, absolutely guarantee QUALITY, and we guarantee WEIGHT and SERVICE.

So now, the beginning of our FIFTY-FIRST Autumn we respectfully solicit your orders for the coming Winter and suggest that you phone us before September 30, so we may protect you at the present prices as shippers advise that on October 1st prices will advance.

Preparations Completed In East Borough

East Stroudsburg's fire department has completed elaborate plans for Fire Prevention Week.

Walter Arnold, publicity chairman for the company, disclosed the activities which will include participation in the Monday night parade. Members have been urged to contact the property clerk to secure uniforms for the promenade.

Tuesday the firemen will cooperate with Civil Defense officials by reporting to the fire house at 7:05 p.m. to man equipment.

Drills in the borough's public schools will highlight the Wednesday agenda for East Stroudsburg and pupils will participate in a poster contest which has earmarked $25 in prizes.

Arnold said the poster program was initiated some years ago by Montgomery Crowe. Four prizes go to the best posters by pupils of St. Matthew's Parochial School; three to public school students of grades one, two and three; a trio of prizes to grades four, five and six; three more to grades seven, eight and nine and another three to the high school's top three grades.

In addition to the Sen. Crowe awards the annual Ernest Swetlin award, a pen and pencil set, will go to the borough student submitting the best essay on "Fire Prevention." The award was set up in memory of Ernest Swetlin who was killed in Europe during World War Two.

Friday members of the department will be at headquarters to answer all telephone inquiries concerning fire prevention. Arnold said the annual phone plan has proved valuable, in that figures reveal annual blazes have dropped from 75, when the program started, to 32 last year.

Saturday the firemen will tote borough children at headquarters, treating the youngsters to souveniers and showing films. Last year some 800 kiddies were on hand for the event.

Picket Halts Work On New Y Building

Work stopped at the YMCA in Stroudsburg yesterday when non-union plumbers started to lay water pipes.

Ralph Paul, business agent of the Plumbers Union, said picketing was aimed at the non-union workers of plumbing contractor Hanford L. Cleveland, East Stroudsburg.

Cleveland's men started laying the outside sections of water pipe in the morning. The picket went on the job in the afternoon.

General contractor Paul Edinger's men all union members—are among those who have gone off the job.

Cleveland said his men could no longer work since the trenches must be dug for the pipe by union shovel operators.

Cleveland said he planned to confer with his attorney, Elmer D. Christine, in connection with the work stoppage.

Three Children Suffer Injuries In Falls; Portland Workman Hurt In Drop From Roof

Falls resulted in injuries to three area children over the weekend, requiring their treatment in the General Hospital dispensary, East Stroudsburg.

Victims were among nine persons treated at the dispensary. They included:

Daniel Reiter, 3, of Bushkill, who fell on a sharp object cutting his forehead.

Brenda Nevil, 8, of 20 E. Broad St., East Stroudsburg, fell off a porch hitting her head on the sidewalk. She suffered a cut left eyebrow.

Clinton Simpson Jr., 2, of Pocono Lake, fractured his left collarbone in a fall down stairs.

A Portland man fell from a roof while helping a neighbor and suffered scalp cuts and bruise burns of the right shoulder and scalp. He is Rudy VanWhy.

Edward Kaulker, Bethlehem, a display window decorator, slipped while trimming a local store window. He pushed his right hand through a plate glass window and

Mrs. Doris Baker, 303 S. Courtland St., East Stroudsburg, cut her right middle finger on a piece of glass.

$400 Bail Forfeited By Bellhop

Bail of $400 was forfeited yesterday by James Jacob, Florida, former Pocono Mountain resort bellhop, who failed to appear and answer a charge of operating a motor vehicle without consent of the owner.

Stroudsburg police said Jacob and another bellhop took a patron's car and went for a joyride. The ride ended with an accident at 119 N. Third St., Stroudsburg.

The companion, David Johnson, Ormond, Fla., was fined $400 Sept. 14 for using a car without consent of the owner.

Jacob's bail was ordered forfeited by President Judge Fred W. Davis.

Mrs. Sabatino Critically Hurt In Car Crash

In critical condition at Easton Hospital last night was Mrs. Katherine Sabatino, 37, Stroudsburg RD, injured in a Wind Gap accident early Sunday.

She suffered a fractured skull and extensive fractures of the facial bones.

Also injured in the accident was Jerry Dorfinger, 31, Saylorsburg RD3, also at Easton Hospital where he is under treatment for a brain concussion. His condition was reported "good."

The accident was investigated by Wind Gap Police Chief W. L. Templeton, who said charges of aggravated assault and battery with an automobile were to be filed against Anthony Sabatino, driver of the car.

The car was going west on Lehigh Ave., police said. It ran off the highway and hit a tree on the property of J. Edwin Hahn. The injured were thrown from the vehicle.

Also in the car was Julia Woolver, Stroudsburg RD3, police said.

Second Bortlick Indicted On Draft Evasion Charge

Scranton, (AP)—A Federal Court grand jury yesterday indicted six men for draft evasion and three other men for transporting stolen cars across state lines.

Among those indicted for draft evasion is Stephen Frank Bortlick of East Stroudsburg, whose brother Ernest Jr., was convicted of the same charge before Judge John W. Murphy on March 25, 1953. Judge Murphy is also hearing the present cases.

The two are sons of Frank Bortlick, of 188 Smith St., a member of the Jehovah's Witnesses. In October, 1940, the elder Bortlick was fined $20 and costs for instructing his sons not to salute the American flag in school.

He explained then that saluting the flag was against his interpretation of the teachings of the Bible.

Others indicted for draft evasion are Tommy Joe Cud of Bushkill, Pike County; James Percy Pinkett, Harrisburg; Richard Lee Joseph

Ream, Harrisburg RD 2; Earl David Hartzog, West Lawn; Richard Howard Fair, Reading.

Daniel Allen Temple of Elmira, N. Y.; Gregory Joseph Driscoll of Syracuse, N. Y., and Illey Nexbitt of Fort Wayne, Ind., were indicted on the stolen cars charges.

Episcopal Women Of Diocese Open Three-Day Conference At Inn Near Mount Pocono

Mount Pocono—About 150 women registered at Hawthorne Inn here yesterday for the three-day conference sponsored by the Christian Education Department of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Protestant Episcopal Church, Diocese of Bethlehem.

Mrs. Theodore O. Wedel, Washington, D. C., former president of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Episcopal Church and member of the national executive board of the Woman's Auxiliary, was principal speaker for the afternoon session.

She discussed program planning and urged members to learn what Christianity really teaches, and what the church really is.

An executive board meeting in charge of Mrs. Ralph T. Lynch, Dunmore, occurred in the morning. Rev. David Doughton, rector of St. Mark's Episcopal Church, Dunmore, served as chaplain for the afternoon service and Rt. Rev. Frank W. Sterrett, bishop of the diocese, delivered the welcome.

Services were held in Trinity Church here. Rev. Doughton's meditation was "Father and the Family".

Mrs. Arthur J. Wheaton, Montrose, Christian Education secretary of the auxiliary, presided for the meeting.

Last night Mrs. Wedel continued her discussion. Today Rev. Charles H. Long Jr., of the National Council of the Episcopal Church will speak.

Tomorrow morning Rt. Rev. Andrew Y. Y. Tsu, Bishop of Yunnan, a new missionary diocese in Southwest China will speak on "Christians in Community China." The conference will conclude after lunch tomorrow.

Committee To Plan For Observance

Further plans for the Oct. 4 to 10 observance of Employ the Handicapped week will be made at 4 p.m. today when the Pocono Mountains committee meets in East Stroudsburg Municipal Building.

Elmer D. Christine, chairman will preside at the session at which representatives are expected to attend. Paul Berner, East Stroudsburg, is vice chairman of the area committee. Arrangements for the observance are being made in co-operation with the East Stroudsburg office, Pennsylvania State Employment Service.

Fishing Party Reports Catch

The deep sea fishing party of George Fenical Jr., of Echo Lake, was fortunate enough on Sunday, Sept. 27, to capture more fish than any other private fishing boat at the N. J. Brielle Basin fishing fleet which consists of over a hundred boats.

The combined catch was 84 fish, consisting of albacore, blue fish and herrings. The largest was caught by Frank Belli, weighing 25 pounds. The second largest was caught by Mrs. Verna Riedmiller, at about 15 pounds. The average was about 10 pounds each. Considering the ocean was very rough and the season nearly over the catch was considered very good.

Those in the "Miss Flo" party boat were Frank Belli, Jake Rodenbaugh, Mr. Frailey, Harry McCintock, John Berryman, Ray LaBar and Junior LaBar.

The "Sportsman" party members were, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Riedmiller, Mr. and Mrs. James Coco, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Boothe and Mr. and Mrs. George Fenical Jr.

Need Of Family Service Is Brought Out By Panel At University Woman's Club

The need of a family service agency in Monroe County for counseling on family problems and co-ordinating services now available was one of the major points brought out in the panel discussion at the opening meeting of the American Association of University Women held at the St. Paul Community House last night.

Mrs. Frank L. Patterson Jr., served as moderator of the panel which had as its general theme "Community Resources for Family Living." Mrs. Marion Fields, Mrs. Essie Fleming, Mrs. Jesse Floy, Mrs. Camille Harvey and Mrs. Claude Leister composed the panel.

Starting with the basic premise "A family has both a continuing need for and a responsibility to other families in the community," the panel compared the direct way of help in the past with social service, bringing out that the latter has helped in the past made individuals "independent" to personal factors and deprived them of respect.

They outlined the agencies now functioning in the county, and described briefly some of the lesser known services. Under the health agencies were listed the state clinic, Tuberculosis Society, Red Cross, Public Health Nursing, the Hospital, Blind Service, Orthopedic Clinic, Crippled Children's Vocational Rehabilitation, Polio Foundation and Cancer Society.

Under mental illness and mentally handicapped they listed institutions available (and here they found a shortage of institutional care available) the psychological testing facilities, the new local school for exceptional children, and the services of the Northampton and Monroe County Child Guidance Clinic.

In speaking of the Guidance Clinic they urged public education that such services were available in the county.

Under financial aid and relief, they listed DPA, and for care of children outside their own homes the Children's Aid Society.

Recreational agencies included the YMCA, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and Salvation Army.

In discussing these agencies, they differentiated between those which were supported by tax funds, those by the Community Chest and those supported by independent voluntary contributions.

Among the need which were not being met, the panel was unanimous in agreeing that a family service was a primary need. A family service agency is usually the first established in a community, and not only serves as a counseling service but also can often coordinate the work of other agencies, they said.

From the general discussion which followed this panel, the plight of the children with serious speech defects in the county, and the need for personal service as leaders in such groups as the Girl and Boy Scouts were brought out.

Also brought out in the discussion were the less publicized responsibilities of the Community Chest in budgeting the gifts wisely, and in surveying the needs of the community and how they were being met by existing agencies.

Mrs. Charles Albert, program chairman, presented the panel.

Mrs. J. L. Cohen, president of the local branch, presided at the opening business session. New members presented by Miss Catherine Reinard, membership chairman, included Mrs. J. W. Mican, who holds an A.B. and B.C.L. degree from William and Mary; Mrs. Jacob Wachtman, A.B. University of Rochester; Mrs. Carl Lilius, Cresco, Bucknell; Miss Ruth Jones, of State Teachers College Infirmary, Columbia University; Miss Ruth Black, real-estate agent, an advanced degree working on an advanced degree.

Reports of committee chairmen included the announcement of the annual Book Fair for Fellowship in November.

Tea was served after the meeting by Mrs. S. M. Monatt, hospitality chairman, and her committee, with Mrs. Arthur Hitt and Mrs. Robert Haigh presiding at the tea table.

Miss Mensch Is Bride Of D. A. Ascani

Bangor — Miss Shirley Belle Mensch, daughter of Mrs. Edna Mensch and the late Clarence Mensch of Bangor RD2, and Donald A. Ascani, son of Mrs. Stephen Vis and the late Joseph Ascani of Bangor were married on Saturday in the Christ Evangelical and Reformed Church at Stone Church.

Rev. J. O. Reagle performed the ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Floyd Mensch.

She wore a gown of imported Chantilly lace and nylon tulle, styled with an illusion neckline, fitted bodice and a bouffant skirt with three layers of ruffled pleats. Her fingertip veil fell from a crown of lace, trimmed with mother-of-pearl and rhinestones. She carried a white Bible with phonetic baby orphans, and pommies with lily of the valley.

Her sister, Mrs. Vane Seibert of Morris Park, Red School Lake, Phillipsburg, N.J., was her matron of honor. She wore a velvet and nylon tulle gown in a King blue, and carried bronze pommies.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Floyd Mensch, sister-in-law of the bride; Mrs. Joseph Ascani, sister-in-law of the bridegroom; Miss Janice LaBar of Bangor; Miss Carol Leigh, also of Bangor. They all wore gowns of velvet and tulle in rose pink, emerald blue and wine. Their flowers were of contrasting shades.

There were two flower girls, Miss Stephanie Vail, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Donna Mensch, niece of the bride. They wore white nylon tulle over tulle, trimmed with rhinestones and lace. Their flowers were King blue pommies.

Gray Seibert, nephew of the bride, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vane Seibert was the ringbearer.

Joseph Ascani of Broadway, Bangor, served as his brother's best man, and ushers included the bride's brother, Elwood Mensch; Elton Horn, cousin of the bride; James Albert, and Leonard De Paolo, also of Bangor.

Mrs. Augustus Garis was organist and the soloist was Miss Betty Liquori, who sang "Always," "Through The Years," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

After a reception at the Belvidere Fire Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Ascani left for a wedding trip to Niagara Falls, Canada and the New England States. They will make their home with the bridegroom's brother, Joseph Ascani.

They are both graduates of Bangor High School. The bride is secretary at the Bangor Water Company and the bridegroom is associated with a Bangor paint and body shop.

Sylvia Granacher Celebrates Seventh Birthday

The seventh birthday of Sylvia Jean Granacher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Granacher of 1129 West Main St., Stroudsburg was celebrated on Sunday afternoon with a party for friends and relatives.

The guest of honor was seated at the head of long table surrounded by cousins and friends. The table was decorated in pink, white and blue, with a birthday cake as the centerpiece. Refreshments of cake, ice cream, candy and punch were served.

Guests included Sylvia's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rustine, her paternal grandmother, Mrs. Estella Granacher; Janet and Ruth Ann Rustine, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Granacher and children, Joey and Mary Beth, Mrs. Russell Frable and children, Virginia and Lynn, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Werkheiser, Mr. and Mrs. William Check, Phyllis Muson, Connie and Lynda Puzio, Nina Bossard, Joan Beseker, Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Granacher, and the honored guest, Sylvia Jean Granacher.

SHS Music Parents Set Goal For New Band Uniforms

New uniforms for the Stroudsburg High School band will be a major project for the Music Parents for this coming year, it was decided at the first meeting of the year held last night as a covered dish supper meeting in the home economics room at the high school.

However, the Music Parents are pledged to advance the cause of all music in the schools, both choral and instrumental, Mrs. M. Stiles Baldwin, president, pointed out in her opening remarks.

There were parents of both bands and choruses present more than 30 strong for the meeting last night. Norma Snyder spoke on behalf of the choral groups which include 80 in the mixed chorus, 32 in the girls chorus; 16 in the madrigal group and 10 in the Decemettes. The Music Parents had already discussed financing the transportation for an out-of-town concert for the choruses.

John Pyle, band director, said that the uniforms now being used by the band would be pretty ragged by the end of the year. There are now 52 students in the marching band, and 57 in the concert band, with the junior band swelling the number, and a possibility of 65 by the end of the year.

Earl Groner, superintendent, and Alfred Munson, principal, both spoke in praise of the part of the musical organizations in the school and in the community and of their directors.

Mrs. Baldwin named Mrs. Russell Harmon and Mrs. John Miller as co-chairmen of a ways and means committee to select their own committee to plan ways of raising the needed funds for uniforms. Mrs. Baldwin reported that the summer tag day had brought in $350, which with an addition contribution of $50 made $600 now available for uniforms.

A committee to select the uniforms was named to consult with Mr. Pyle. It included Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Frisbie, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Michelfelder, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Groner, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Munson, Dr. and Mrs. T. L. Metzgar, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Fetherman, and Mrs. Horace Westbrook.

The next meeting of the Music Parents will be held October 26.

Birthday Party For Mrs. Carlton, Granddaughter

A surprise birthday party was held for Mrs. Verla Carlton at her home at 306 Wallace St., given by her children and grandchildren on Saturday night.

A buffet supper was served to Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Lee, Martha and Cynthia Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Carlton, Linda and Ronnie Carlton, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Carlton and Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Carlton and Dawn Carlton.

H. B. Courtwright and Miss Laura Courtwright were unable to attend.

Also celebrating a birthday was Mrs. Carlton's granddaughter, Dawn, 11, who entertained ten of her young friends at a theater party on Saturday afternoon.

Refreshments were served and games were played before the movies. Prizes were won by Shirley Dymond and Nancy Jo Flory. Also attending were Gale and Brenda Kaiser, Nancy Sullivan, Carol Lee, Donna Messer, Judy Rupert, Dianne Henry, Brenda Torsillo and Dawn Carlton.

Sciota Rebekahs Schedule Big Event Saturday

Sciota — The Sciota Rebekah Lodge will hold a card party, open social and bazaar and bake sale on Saturday, October 3, open to the public at 7 p.m. Since it is the last social activity of the term of the Noble Grand of the lodge, Mrs. E. G. Young has asked all committees to function.

Lodge members are asked to donate toward the bazaar. Members who cannot deliver their contributions may have them called for on Saturday afternoon. Refreshments and a grab bag will also be featured.

Open House For Silver Anniversary

An open house will mark the 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur K. Bond, of 18 North Third St., Stroudsburg. The observance will be held at their home on Thursday, October 1, from 4:30 to 10:30 p.m. Their friends are all invited.

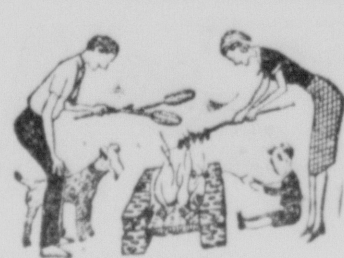

Wash the soot and dirt off the leaves of your house plants occasionally so that the leaves can "breathe." Let the leaves dry away from the sun.

E. Stroudsburg PTA Opens With Record Attendance

The East Stroudsburg Parent-Teachers Association was off to an enthusiastic start on its new year's program when its first meeting packed the meeting room in the Junior High School last night.

An indication of the high interest aroused was the fact that 105 memberships were last night received.

The group voted to accept as its major project for the year the purchase of a cyclorama—that is a complete stage set including curtains and other stage paraphernalia for the stage at the Junior High School which is used by all the schools and by the community as well.

David Miller, PTA president, named Kenneth Lewis to head a ways and means committee to secure funds for this project. Mrs. Douglas Townsend, Mrs. Frank Reusswig, Mrs. T. G. Post and Mrs. Anthony Haracher were named to that committee.

The PTA also decided to again sponsor a school insurance program and Mrs. Morton Barrow and Mrs. Clifford Cramer were named as a committee to investigate three possible plans of insurance.

The October meeting will include an open house at the Junior High School and the November meeting an open house for Senior High School and elementary grades in the Senior High School.

Charles Reid, president of the Youth Center, spoke concerning their plans, and Mrs. Morris Peckman was named chairman of PTA chaperones. There were 32 volunteers to assist her.

The program was devoted to the theme "Know Your Schools" and featured talks by Mrs. Clarence Booth, first grade teacher at the laboratory school at the college; Theodore Williams on the elementary, and junior high schools, and Walter Stem on the senior high school.

They each spoke on the physical set-up of the schools, statistical report on the number of students, their activities, their clubs and the use of modern aids in education.

A social count, which is a feature of each meeting in which the number of parents of children is tabulated, revealed that the newly established kindergarten, taught by Mrs. Clifford Lambert, had the best representation of parents.

Following the meeting, refreshments were served by the Junior High School home room mothers under the direction of Mrs. Orville Cole, hospitality chairman.

Brownies Meet At St. John's

The Brownies of Troop 33 held their first meeting yesterday at St. John's Lutheran church when officers were elected. Judith Vaughn and Nancy Auer were elected patrol presidents; Janice Fisher and Shirley Hilliard, patrol secretaries; Barbara Lawson and Faye Vaughn, patrol treasurers; Valerie Howitt, troop scribe.

Pamela Tittle and Shirley Teleski will serve as the planning committee; Kathleen Speiser and Barbara Potcher on the Juliet Low Committee and Nina Bossard will serve as troop treasurer.

Brownies present were Nina Bossard, Shirley Hilliard, Barbara Potcher, Kathleen Speiser, Pamela Tittle, Shirley Teleski, Margaret Schmidt, Janice Fisher, Judy Vaughn, Faye Vaughn, Barbara Lawson, Ann Demsky, Valerie Howitt, Suzanne Buck, Nancy Metzgar, and three new Brownies Sylvia Jean Granacher, Connie Lou Puzio and Nancy Auer.

Troop leaders are Mrs. W. Fisher and Mrs. Arthur Bossard.

THE Wyckoff SHOPPER

You've heard, of course, about the sailor who spent his vacation rowing in Central Park? Or the postman who hiked ten miles a day during his two weeks with pay? Blanche Mackey of our electric appliance department is in something of the same category this week. After demonstrating washers, dryers, ironers, and refrigerators all year 'round, Blanche's spending her vacation at home, enjoying the wonderful new automatic Frigidaire washer she won in a recent sales contest. Blanche isn't the first to find that Frigidaire appliances put fun into housekeeping. Why don't you find out for yourself, if you haven't already?

It's my belief that everyone is entitled to find pleasure and satisfaction in his work, but that a "swelled head" is inexcusable. Today I have a beaut, however as you can see for yourself—and I need it like I needed another hole in the head. (Which I also have, thanks to the dentist) . . . We moderns love functional items that serve a dual purpose, and one of the cleverest to come our way lately is the plastic Pill-Pak which sells at 25c. The lower part of what appears to be just a small round box, is a collapsible cup such as mother had for me when I was a Brownie going on picnics. The top has a round place at the center designed to hold pills.

Sanitary and convenient, this will fit into a purse with those countless other accessories we women love . . . Something worth watching is the gradual emergence of a colorful hooked rug from the burlap covered frame in our art goods department. I noticed yesterday that several cheerful flowerers have already been completed, and I suppose they're the work of Doris Hinton who recently joined Amy Lilienberger's staff in that department. The process looks so simple, and the rug is going to be so beautiful, I'm tempted to spend my winter evenings at the same pastime. What about you? . . . Any also draws our attention to a new form of 3-D now invading the nursery. In the form of wall decorations, those lovely, imaginative creations are called Picturamas. Part of each picture is printed upon the background. The clothing is actually cut from cloth however, and carefully folded and stitched into place, creating a third dimension. A kit, complete with materials for one picture and frame, is priced at $3.98. My favorite pair shows a boy and a girl kneeling to pray. "The little boy is cherubic in blue pajamas; the little girl is saintly in flowered pink chollis. Three-D may be just a pain in the neck when you have to view it through special glasses—but these pictures are truly 3-dimensional. . . . There are, at the present time, approximately 20,000,000 working women in the United States, who will celebrate National Business Women's Week—from October 11th to 17th. The local observance will be sponsored by the Business and Professional Women's Club of which Berenice All is president. Plans were made at a meeting Saturday in my office, and I couldn't help thinking as we talked just how many of Wyckoff's 250 employees are women. Certainly the fair sex has come a long way since a few decades ago when "nice girls" played at Alice Sit-by-the-Fire and passed their time making jewelry from braided hair. . . . If you're thinking about pre-tying the home for the holidays and club meetings, come in to see our stunning new fabrics. They'll inspire you! And see our big front window too, showing varied patterns suitable for use with early American, French provincial or modern furnishings. Whether you wish to re-amp or merely re-lamp your living room, we have all the bright answers at Wyckoff's.

Also elected are Miss Carolyn Lapinski, vice president; Miss Lois Bronner, recording secretary; Miss Ardith Groner, corresponding secretary and Mrs. Farrest Mae Skinner, treasurer.

Installation will occur Monday, Nov. 2 at a place to be announced later. Miss Florence Litzberger, Scranton, State vice president, will conduct installation. She addressed the organization meeting here.

All secretaries of the Pocono Mountains region are invited to join the organization.

Rabbi Lists Final Services Of Festival

The final days of the Succoth Festival will be celebrated at Temple Israel this week, Rabbi William Fierwerker announced yesterday.

Thursday is "Shemini Atzereth" or the "Eighth day of Solemn Assembly" and although the last day of Succoth (a period of rejoicing), a more serious mood prevails in the house of worship, partly due to the memorial services (Yizkor) conducted that day.

Simchat Torah, the last day of Succoth, is one of the jolliest days in the Jewish calendar. Simchat Torah, literally "Rejoicing in the Law," is the day when the reading of the Torah in the synagogue is concluded every year, and immediately after is resumed.

Reading from the Torah has been part of synagogue worship on the Sabbath, on the holidays, and on Mondays and Thursdays since ancient times. Every Sabbath a portion of the Torah is covered. In this way, all of the Five Books of Moses are read through every year. On Simchat Torah the last chapter is completed and the first chapter in Genesis begun.

Temple Israel's Simchat Torah celebration will take place Thursday night. Children will be given paper flags and refreshments and will join with their parents in the traditional Hakofot (processional with the Torah scrolls).

Congregants are asked to observe the following schedule of services:

Wednesday, 8:15 p.m.; Thursday, 7:30 a.m. (Yizkor—memorial services—will be conducted); Thursday, 7:30 p.m., (Simchat Torah celebration. All children invited); Friday, 7:30 a.m.; Friday, 8:15 p.m. and Saturday, 7:30 a.m.

Invitation To Visit Poconos To Be Extended At Conference

An invitation to New England motorists to stop in the Pocono Mountains enroute to the South will be extended this week when three area men attend the national conference on soil conservation at Providence, R. I.

J. H. Kunkle, East Stroudsburg, president of the Pocono Forestry Association, said last night he will leave here tomorrow morning with Donald deOtte, Stroudsburg RDI, chairman of the Monroe County Soil Conservation District board of directors and Walter VonBroock, former Penn-Stroud owner and promoter of a movement to establish Edison Memorial Park in Delaware Water Gap.

The conference continues until Saturday, but the local men will return Friday.

DeOtte recently attended a conference at Potato City, nine miles east of Coudersport, Pa., where the Pennsylvania Association of Soil Conservation Districts convened.

At that session officers made plans for their association meeting in Harrisburg in November and heard State officials emphasize the importance of soil conservation districts in American agriculture.

DeOtte's second birthday on Oct. 5. Ronald Zwally spent the weekend with his wife and family. He is stationed in the Navy at Norfolk, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Orma LaBar received many cards and also presents for their 47th wedding anniversary, which they celebrated recently.

On the Hudson River excursion were the following: Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bittenbender, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wolff and daughter, Carol and Frances, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Baylor, and daughter, Adolph Rebellio and Paul Van Gordon.

RUPTURE VICTIMS FIND RELIEF WITH SYKES CONTROL

ST. PETERSBURG, FLA.—It is now possible to offer LIFE-TIME RELIEF from reducible rupture without surgery or injections, according to Herbert B. Sykes, founder of Sykes Hernia Control Service.

Mr. Sykes developed the first BASIC improvement in the long history of manual hernia control methods. The new principle uses a balanced lever control that LIFTS the abdominal muscles back into place. This is a tremendous advance over trusses with straps that bind around the hips.

With scientific precision, the Sykes Control closes the INTERNAL opening where Hernia begins. It allows COMPLETE FREEDOM of movement in comfort and safety.

Thousands End Rupture Trouble. Sykes representatives are expertly trained to provide custom made Controls and a series of progressive adjustments. Their service, together with this great invention, have ended

Life of Riley

By JIM RILEY
Sports Editor

It's as natural as ham and eggs, bread and butter, Mutt and Jeff and Maggie and Jiggs. What am I talking about? I am raving on about the number one topic of discussion in East Stroudsburg and Bangor at the present time. The coming football game is more important in these two boroughs than even the World Series. When Bangor and East Stroudsburg High schools clash on Friday they will put undefeated records on the line. The Cavaliers have won three games and the Slaters have picked up two straight victories.

Bangor has defeated Palmerston and Catasauqua on successive outings, while the Cavaliers have won over Hellebronn, Slatington and Pen Argyl in that order. A football battle between these two schools is truly a natural and Friday night's crowd will be of the standing-room-only variety. Friday's contest may very easily attract the largest crowd of the entire 1953 season to Memorial Stadium. This is one contest in which the early arrival will be rewarded with the best seat.

The Slaters will hold a wide edge in the weight department, as three maroon and white clad gridlers expected to see a lot of action weigh over 200 pounds. Ray Heaney tips the beam at 254 pounds, while Gerald Daily is 241 and Ralph Stenlake weighs 205 pounds. Bangor will also bring two of the finest scholastic runners in the area to town in the persons of Jack Finelli and Rodney Miller. Bangor will undoubtedly be the toughest foe that East Stroudsburg has been called upon to meet thus far this season. Right now the Cavaliers are hampered by injuries, but everyone in Eastburg is hopeful that their favorite team will be ready for action by Friday.

East Stroudsburg State Teachers College opened its season on Saturday with a convincing 31-0 victory over Millersville and made the local fans sit up and take notice. The Warriors presented their new short punt formation and it was obvious from the beginning of action that Millersville didn't have the material to cope with the new ESSTC system. The Warriors presented a wide assortment of offensive plays and came up with an alert defense that stalled the black and gold clad Millersville club without a single first down.

The Warriors have a combination of hard charging forwards and fast moving backs that has been missing on Normal Hill in recent years. The ball carriers moved well and the holes were there for them to pick up yardage. It was a good opening game for the charges of Coach Gene Martin and should put the red and black clad gridlers into a good frame of mind for this Saturday night's contest against King's College, at Wilkes-Barre. This is the first night game of the season for the Warriors and the opening battle for King's.

The short punt formation has given the Warriors a bigger variety of plays and certainly seems to fit the situation better than systems used previously on Normal Hill. One of the top runs in last Saturday's contest was a 45-yard scamper by Dick Merring. East Stroudsburg High's gift to collegiate football. Other local products who saw action and distinguished themselves against Millersville last Saturday are Jim Fritz and George Colonius, East Stroudsburg, and Bob Fabel, Stroudsburg. Dick Tranter, another former East Stroudsburg High star, is reportedly no longer a candidate for the ESSTC grid machine.

Colonius broke his nose in the opening game of the campaign, the sixth time that such an accident has befallen the big end. Don Toth, Pen Argyl resident and one of the oldest men to ever play football at ESSTC, got off a 61-yard punt against Millersville. Don, who is over 30 years old, was hampered by injuries virtually all of last season. The Warriors were outfitted in flashy new red and black uniforms. About two-thirds of Saturday's crowd up on Normal Hill was made up of freshmen. Freshmen were required to witness the opening game.

Stroudsburg High school featured a lot of new equipment on Friday against Emmaus, including uniforms and shoes. The Stroudsburg cheerleaders also were in new uniforms for the first home game of the campaign. Jerry Stulgaitis, head football coach at Stroudsburg High, appeared in a New York World Telegram and Sun story yesterday on the fact that Jane Froman, well known vocalist, had once again taken an active part in golf. It was Jerry who asked Jane to give golf another try last August, while the well known television star was vacationing at Shawnee. The Daily Record reported Jane's fine comeback in golf at that time.

If team officials in the Pocono Mountains League would keep up with findings of the league, at regular and special meetings, there would be far less difficulty in our local game of baseball. Lake Harmony won last Saturday's benefit with Mauch Chunk A. A. in East Mauch Chunk, 9-8.

Stroudsburg High Junior Varsity Topples Lehigh

McNeal, Adams, Marable Score In Victory

Lehighton — Stroudsburg High school's junior varsity football team picked up right where the varsity left off yesterday as the maroon and white clad yearlings scored an 18-6 victory over the Lehighton junior varsity, here on the latter's home field.

Stroudsburg scored once in the first period and twice in the second to assume an 18-0 lead at halftime. Lehighton's lone score came against the Stroudsburg reserves in the final period.

Coach George Metropoulos watched his charges break into a 6-0 advantage in the first period as Charley McNeal scored 12 yards into paydirt.

Jim Adams brought the crowd to its feet with a brilliant 62-yard scamper early in the second round to give the visiting crew a 12-0 edge at that time.

Final Touchdown
Leon Marable crashed through center for eight yards for the final Stroudsburg touchdown of the game. Each attempt at the extra point met with failure.

Lehighton broke into the scoring picture in the last period when Stewart Sheekler hit Bruce Kuntz with a 17-yard pass in the endzone. The Indians also failed to ring the bell with their extra point attempt.

Stroudsburg is idle for two weeks and then returns to action against Pen Argyl.

Old Friends Meet In Line

New York (AP) — There was an air of "old home week" yesterday outside the bleacher seats box office at Yankee Stadium.

More than 48 hours before the 1953 baseball classic was due to get underway at the Bronx ball park, two veteran bleacher seat regulars showed up at the gate, greeted each other effusively and settled down to wait for the box office to open today.

As they renewed their friendship that started at the same stadium five years ago, the pair of enthusiastic baseball addicts agreed that the Yankees would win the series over the Brooklyn Dodgers. An afternoon-long discussion of the merits of both teams, interspersed with sandwiches, came to a quiet end shortly after 9 p.m. when the pair of intrepid fans rolled themselves into one blanket and went to sleep.

First
First to show up was Charles M. Kierst, a 61-year-old fireman of Auburn, N. Y., for whom this will be the 17th straight World Series. Kierst, who takes his vacation especially to see the series each year, hitch-hiked from the upstate city and took up his post at 8 a.m. a little surprised that he was first. In from Chicago, arrived Ralph J. Belcore, 39, who had been first in line at Yankee Stadium last year.

Future Of Browns Still Remains Uncertain

New York (AP) — The American League club owners failed to come to a decision on what to do with the St. Louis Browns after a meeting of more than three hours last night and will take up the problem again today.

Thus for the second straight night, the club owners couldn't decide what to do with their problem child.

"So far we have made no decision on the sale of our stock," said Brownie President Bill Veeck.

Frank Lane of the Chicago White Sox said earlier that Del Webb, co-owner of the New York Yankees, has been authorized by the American League to negotiate on behalf of unnamed interests

Pen Argyl Rallies To Top Eastburg

Cavaliers Bow In Last Four Minutes

Pen Argyl scored two touchdowns in the last four minutes of play here yesterday to earn a 19-13 victory over the East Stroudsburg junior varsity football squad at Memorial Stadium.

East Stroudsburg had been rolling along on the long end of a 13-7 count before Pen Argyl made its lightning-like strikes in the fading moments of the final quarter.

The Cavaliers broke into the scoring column in the first period when Doug Dailey registered a touchdown. Dick Gray added the extra point from placement.

Garry Guthrie scored on an end sweep for Pen Argyl also in the first period. Bonnie Valletta added the extra point from placement to tie the score.

Advantage
The Mountaineers went into the lead in the second period when John Beck crossed the double chalk mark. The extra point attempt failed.

It appeared as if the remainder of the game would be scoreless, but Sam Lohr blasted into the endzone on a quarterback sneak with less than four minutes remaining. The extra point attempt failed and the teams were deadlocked at 13-all.

Pen Argyl intercepted an East Stroudsburg pass deep in the home team's territory and on the next play Ed Legg caught a pass from Lohr for the winning touchdown. The extra point attempt failed but it didn't matter, as time ran out on the Cavaliers as they attempted to move the ball downfield.

Pen Argyl (19)
Ends—Lutz, Bunsen, Luckey.
Tackles—Parsons, C. Valletta, Wood, Jr.

Bumps
Otherwise the Warriors came through their first game of the season with only the usual number of bumps and bruises.

Ted Murray, hard running half-back last season, didn't see action against Millersville last Saturday because of an injured hip. He is expected to be ready to run against King's on Saturday.

Martin announced last night that he was satisfied with the play of his charges against Millersville, but that the team would have to work hard this week to get ready for a strong King's eleven.

The Saturday contest will be played under the lights in Wilkes-Barre.

Johnson Gains Important Nod

Trenton, N. J. (AP) — Up-and-coming George Johnson, 151, Trenton, outpointed veteran Luther Rawlings, 150, Chicago, in a rousing 10-round upset at Trenton Arena last night.

Scoring
Referee Joe Mangold gave Johnson six rounds, Rawlings two and called two even. The ref is the only judge in New Jersey.

Webb proposed would be approved by the league.

The Browns were invited to the conference, California was in the forefront over speculation on a possible transfer.

Rumors were ripe that the National League and American League are jockeying in an effort to land San Francisco and Los Angeles in the ranks of one or the other. The league that signs up both cities would not only tap rich territory but could simplify schedule and transportation problems as far as the West is concerned.

Reports that the National League met secretly during the day were denied by several National League owners.

that Gilliam's eyes were glazed and that he could not continue."

Statement
Wallace was warned in the first round and lost the second round for low blows.

Early in the fourth round Wallace scored with a one-two combination and a long right to the jaw that hurt Gilliam. Gilliam's left eye was cut from a series of left-right hook combinations.

The victory was Wallace's 21st in 23 pro fights. He had not fought since July because he's been busy impersonating Joe Louis in a movie about the former heavyweight champion.

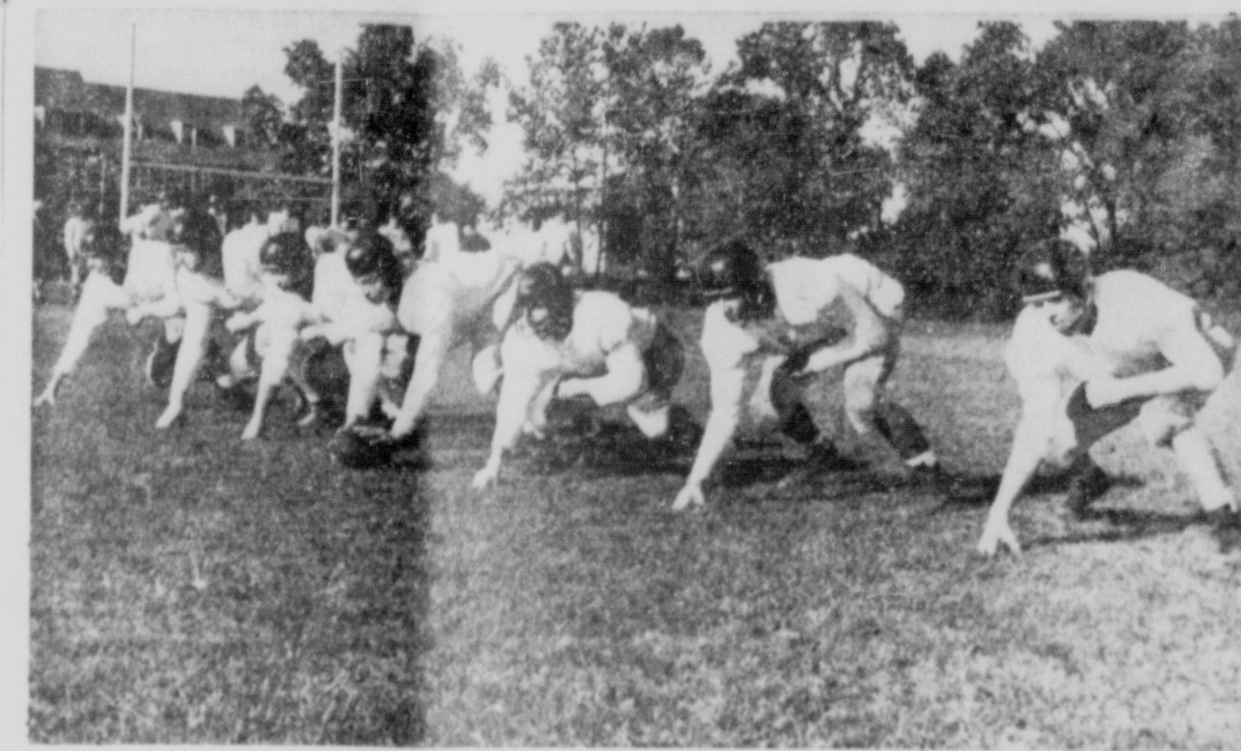

Gilliam arose at the count of six but took the mandatory count of eight and then fell backwards into the ropes. Referee Abe Simon stopped the fight and said

ESSTC In Good Shape After Opener

East Stroudsburg State Teachers College emerged from its one-sided 31-0 victory over Millersville Teachers without a serious injury to any of its front-line troops.

Coach Gene Martin announced last night that Bob Tyson, big reserve back, had suffered an ankle injury, but that it wasn't believed to be serious.

George Colonius, second string end and a graduate of East Stroudsburg High School, suffered a broken nose, but will be ready for Saturday night's tussle with King's College. A special nose protector will be attached to Colonius' helmet for the remainder of the season.

Two Others
Don Herman had a side injury and Harold White is hampered by a sore hip, but each is expected to be ready for Friday's invasion of Memorial Stadium by Bangor. Otherwise the Cavaliers are ready for action.

Coach Jerry Stulgaitis reported that his Stroudsburg squad came through the Emmaus contest with the usual number of bumps and bruises, but was more than slightly concerned with Jack Whittle's damaged hip. Whittle is also scheduled to have x-rays taken today.

Benny Miller suffered an injured left leg, but the hard running back is expected to be as good as new on Saturday.

Both Stroudsburg and East Stroudsburg will be risking undefeated records this weekend. The Mountaineers own two victories and the Cavaliers three.

Palmisano, Whittle Worry Coaches With Grid Injuries

East Stroudsburg and Stroudsburg High schools each had one serious worry yesterday as they prepared for this week's football agenda. The Cavaliers begin serious work today for its Friday night battle with Bangor, while Stroudsburg tangles with Palmerston on Saturday.

Coach Jack Kist yesterday was plainly concerned with Mike Palmisano, starting left tackle. Palmisano suffered a back injury at Pen Argyl last Saturday and yesterday complained of soreness and trouble breathing.

Palmisano is scheduled to have x-rays taken today.

Don Herman had a side injury and Harold White is hampered by a sore hip, but each is expected to be ready for Friday's invasion of Memorial Stadium by Bangor. Otherwise the Cavaliers are ready for action.

Palmisano, Whittle Worry Coaches With Grid Injuries

East Stroudsburg and Stroudsburg High schools each had one serious worry yesterday as they prepared for this week's football agenda. The Cavaliers begin serious work today for its Friday night battle with Bangor, while Stroudsburg tangles with Palmerston on Saturday.

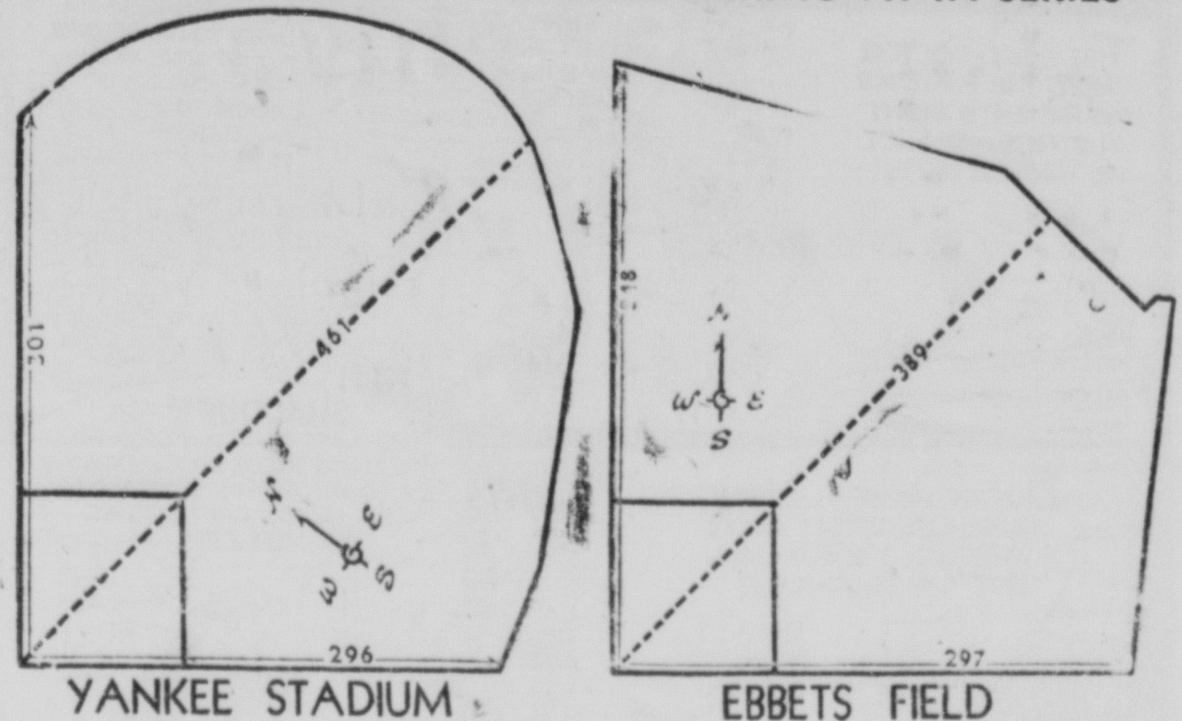

Coach Jack Kist yesterday was plainly concerned with Mike Palmisano, starting left tackle. Palmisano suffered a back injury at Pen Argyl last Saturday and yesterday complained of soreness and trouble breathing.

Palmisano is scheduled to have x-rays taken today.

Don Herman had a side injury and Harold White is hampered by a sore hip, but each is expected to be ready for Friday's invasion of Memorial Stadium by Bangor. Otherwise the Cavaliers are ready for action.

Coach Jerry Stulgaitis reported that his Stroudsburg squad came through the Emmaus contest with the usual number of bumps and bruises, but was more than slightly concerned with Jack Whittle's damaged hip. Whittle is also scheduled to have x-rays taken today.

WHAT POWER BOYS WILL BE AIMING AT IN SERIES

DISTANCES—These diagrams above show distances for home run hitters in the World Series opening tomorrow. The classic opens in Yankee Stadium and shifts to Ebbets Field on Friday.

Notre Dame Runs Away With Associated Press Grid Poll

By Harold Claassen
New York, CP—Notre Dame ran away with the honors in the first weekly Associated Press poll of 1953 to determine the 10 best college football teams.

The Irish, third place winners in the final tabulation of 1952 but easy winners in a pre-season election two weeks ago, snared 71 of 98 first place votes following the 28-21 victory over Oklahoma on Saturday. Michigan State, proud national champion of a year ago, slipped to second in the balloting after being held to a 21-7 triumph by Iowa.

Notre Dame garnered 907 points on the basis that 10 points are given for each first place, nine for second and so on until only one is given for 10th place. Michigan State, with six firsts, was second with 602 points.

While the sports writers and broadcasters agreed on the strength of Notre Dame and Michigan State they showed no agreement the rest of the way. Forty-four different teams registered points.

Third

The top two were followed by Maryland with 501 points, Michigan with 403, UCLA 391, Ohio

State 380, Southern California 346, Oklahoma 316, Georgia Tech 242 and Baylor 188. The Sooner showing against Notre Dame was so strong that the club was voted eighth place although defeated in its only start this season.

Coeach Frank Leahy of Notre Dame, who said he was pleased with his team after its triumph, was quoted in late summer that the club would be lucky to make a first down this fall. It made 11 against the Sooners and yielded the same number.

This weekend Notre Dame plays Purdue, beaten last Saturday but always rugged for the Irish. Michigan State takes on Minnesota, Coach Biggie Munn's alma mater.

The second 10 with first place votes in parentheses: 11. Mississippi State (1) 176; 12. Duke (1) 127; 13. West Virginia (4) 94; 14. Rice 76; 15. Mississippi 68; 16. Wisconsin 54; 17. Texas 53; 18. Georgia 49; 19. Louisiana State 46; 20. Holy Cross 42.

Other teams which received 10 or more points: Missouri 38; Army and Pennsylvania, 31 each; William & Mary 24; California 22; Northwestern 16.

Baseball Figure Dies

Covington, La., CP—Bruce I. Hayes, 79, veteran baseball scout, died yesterday ending a career of more than 50 years in baseball.

U. S. Ryder Cup Takes Part In Practice

Virginia Water, Surrey, CP—U.S. Ryder Cup golfers copied the first-day program of actual cup matches in practice yesterday and divided into "Scotch foursomes" to test personalities and see how they fit.

Lloyd Mangrum, American Ryder Cup captain, ordered the serious organized practice to check the personalities as well as to "let the boys start finding out whose shots will help the other the most," and said:

Pleased

"The results were fine, all of us like Wentworth course and I think we will win."

A Scotch foursome calls for two players to work as a team, each man hitting alternating shots.

Matches start Friday on the 6,700-yard rolling and wooded suburban London course. Saturday's program calls for a single play individual Americans versus Britons.
